

Guidelines for the Submission of Proposals

Eligibility Criteria

1. Students and researchers from agriculture studies can apply through their respective universities
2. For 2026, proposals from University of Agriculture Peshawar, University of Agriculture Faisalabad and MNS University of Agriculture Multan are eligible to apply
3. Students and researchers are encouraged to submit innovations which are ready to make impact on ground, through pilot and testing. Such projects must make a meaningful impact on agriculture and food security in Pakistan's prospective.
4. Expenses directly related to the project will be admissible while upto 5% administrative cost is permitted

Submission Form

The submission form, duly completed, shall be sent to the given email id. Hard copies will not be entertained.

Section 1- Project Info

This section is for elaboration of the project, its rationality and intended outcome.

- a. Describe your project in 200 words. Keep your response restricted to the need it addresses, technology and innovation at work and objectives.

Highlight the innovation you are focusing on, the problem it addresses, an introduction to the technology you are proposing as the solution to the problem and its intended results.

- b. Please indicate any previous, recognized work or research which supports the submitted project. Validate your response with links to publications or projects of similar kind.

The technology and innovation being successfully implemented or validated which supports the project.

- c. List down in bullets key project impact, outcomes, activities and intended beneficiaries

The response should include the implementation of the project, its impact on the targeted segment and intended beneficiaries

Section 2- Introduction to the Team

a. Team Name

Max 15 words

Choose a title of your choice which relates to the submission

b. Team members and role

Use bullets to specify name, association, institute, role. Max 150 words

List all members with roles and responsibilities. The role of a supervisor from the institute is very significant and must be highlighted in this section.

c. Institute/ University.

Add institute name, proposed supervisor and details including email addresses, contact etc. Max 150 words

Response to include university name, department, semester

d. Present Status of the Project

Any previous funding, submission

Stage: Pilot or Conceptualization.

200 words limit

Please indicate in case the project has already received funding from any source.

Section 3- Implementation and Funding

a. Implementation & Activities Plan

Please breakdown in bullet the proposed implementation plan.

Use June 2026 as expected launch date of the project with timeline of 6-12 months to implement.
250 words limit

The response must include a roadmap towards execution of the project as per timeline with details of activities

b. Budget and Finance

Please breakdown in bullet the proposed budget. Max Allocation per project is Rs 2 Million.

200 words limit. Only direct cost related to project is applicable. No travel/ participation in seminar or workshops is admissible.

Response to list down all expected expenses from the grant, including sub heads. Upto 5% administrative cost is admitted.

➤ Section 4- Attachments

Please send all attachments as separate copy with the email response. The title of attachments should be clear to relate with the project.

Attachment 1

Upload

Attachment 2

Upload

Attachment 3

Upload